

Key Study Personnel Employment and Requirements

Role	Is this a Meriter Employee?	Meriter Medical Education Office Certification to Enter Hospital	CITI/Human Subjects Training Requirement
Staff who receive a Meriter paycheck. Examples: Nurses, Unit Clerks, Therapists, Dieticians, Nursing Assistants, Social Workers, etc.	YES	NO	Depending on research tasks, CITI training or study specific training. *
UW Physicians, PAs, NPs. Medical Staff Membership is required for a physician to be a Principal Investigator at Meriter. Meriter Medical Staff Membership does not infer employment.	NO	NO	Follow UW-Madison Requirements. Meriter doesn't require proof of training.
UW PhD Researchers Examples: UW Nursing PhDs, PhD bench scientists, etc.	NO	YES	Same as above.
UW Residents & Fellows	NO	NO	Same as above.
UW Study Coordinators	NO	YES	Same as above.
UW Students	NO	YES	Same as above.

*More information is below and on the Meriter Research Compliance website under Human Subject Protection Training.

- Meriter employees who perform research tasks such as consenting subjects, designing research, making decisions about inclusion/exclusion criterion for a study, etc. must take the Meriter CITI training.
- Meriter employees who perform study specific tasks should receive protocol specific training from the principal investigator, study coordinator or other qualified study team member.