

Dr. Ritu Bansal, Heather Roller Kathy Thorsteinson

Dental Health Center

COVID-19 has resulted in new protocols across the hospital. At the Dental Health Center, suction is now used during all procedures for the safety of patients and staff. While this would normally require an extra hand, the team designed and 3D printed a biocompatible device that allows them to use suction while operating normally.